Everyone is concerned about homelessness at Christmas. We are concerned about homelessness all year round.

That is why we are asking for your help to get people off our streets. Rough sleeping is just the most visible aspect of homelessness. And the level of rough sleeping continues to rise.

Every day counts when it comes to the life-saving and life-changing work of our outreach teams. They are on the streets every morning across Nottingham, Nottinghamshire and in Sheffield and Rotherham; they know how quickly people sleeping rough become entrenched in that lifestyle and how much more difficult it becomes to help with every day that passes.

With the public's generous support we have moved more than 820 people off the streets and out of danger in the past year so they – and their pets – can enjoy Christmas Day like the rest of us.
